

Programs Offered

Groups can choose to attend prescheduled programs, or can choose their own topic and date (with a minimum of 10 scouts). Programs are available after school, evenings, and weekends, and overnight options may be available. Programs are conducted at Wesselman Woods Nature Preserve, Howell Wetlands, local waterways, or at a location of your choice.

Wesselman Nature Society hosts programs for Boy Scouts of all age levels. Boys can experience their world together through nature discovery activities, outdoor explorations, animal encounters, group games, arts and crafts, and more. Programs are offered to fulfill badges, achievements, or awards, but they can also be customized to suit the interests of the group and be just for fun.
